Job Title:	Intern -App Development (Pravritti 2025)
Job Description:	App Development Intern – Craft the Future of Mobility Location: Gurgaon Duration: 2 Months Who We Are: At Hozo Cars, a premium corporate car rental service, we're not just moving people; we're steering innovation in mobility. Now, we're looking for a trailblazer from IIT Delhi to help us design the app that will redefine how businesses ride. What You'll Do: Design the Vision: Conceptualize and design a sleek, user-friendly app that embodies the premium Hozo Cars experience. Build the Experience: Work on UI/UX to craft a seamless, engaging interface for corporate clients. Collaborate to Innovate: Team up with our strategy, design, and tech leads to transform ideas into features. Solve Challenges: Bring creative solutions to real-world tech and design challenges in mobility. What's In It for You: Equity Opportunity: A chance to earn equity and share in our success. PPO Potential: Impress us, and your journey with Hozo

Cars could extend beyond the internship.
Real Impact: See your designs shaping an industry-disrupting product.
What You Bring:

A passion for app design and development, with a flair for innovation.

Hands-on experience with app design tools (Figma, Adobe XD, etc.) and frontend technologies.

A problem-solving mindset and the ability to think outside the box.

Why Join Us:

This isn't just an internship—it's a chance to leave your mark in a fast-growing, competitive industry and work alongside a team that values innovation as much as execution.

Ready to Build the Future with Us?

Apply now and bring your creative genius to Hozo Cars!
